WHEREAS the Corporation of the City of Vernon was incorporated by Letters Patent issued on the 30th day of December, 1892:

And whereas the said Corporation did on the 21st day of November, 1930, apply for a licence to divert and use 2,000,000 gallons a day of water from Kalamalka Lake and to store 5,760 acre-feet of water in said lake in the Vernon Water District for waterworks purpose:

And whereas the said Corporation has petitioned for the approval of its undertaking relative to the aforesaid application:

And whereas it appears in the public interest to grant the prayer of the Corporation's said petition:

This is to certify that the undertaking of the Corporation of the City of Vernon, relative to the diversion and use of 2,000,000 gallons a day of water from Kalamalka Lake and the storage of 5,760 acre-feet of water in said lake for waterworks purpose, as the said undertaking is outlined in the petition of the said Corporation filed with the Comptroller of Water Rights on the 24th day of November, 1930, is hereby approved, subject to the terms and conditions of the “Water Act” and to the following terms and conditions:—

The construction of the works necessary to divert and store the water as aforesaid shall be begun by the 1st day of July, 1931, and shall be carried out to the satisfaction of the Comptroller of Water Rights.

The territory within which the Corporation of the City of Vernon may distribute and sell the water diverted or stored under the licence or licences that may be issued in pursuance of the aforesaid application shall comprise the corporate limits of the said Corporation.

This certificate does not authorize the diversion or storage of any water or the construction of any works, nor is it an approval of the plans of any works.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 7th day of March, 1931.

H. CATHCART,

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned:

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"Co-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 290.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "British Columbia Cleaners and Dyers Co-operative Association" has this day been incorporated as an Association under the "Co-operative Associations Act" and that the denomination of its shares is two dollars each.

The registered office of the Association will be situate at Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Association are:—

(a.) To promote, develop, encourage, and better conditions in the cleaning and dyeing industry in the Province of British Columbia, and to encourage and assist its members by whatever means may be approved of by the Association:

(b.) To carry on the business of cleaners, laundresses, pressers, and dyers, and to wash, clean, purify, scour, bleach, wring, dry, iron, colour, dye, disinfect, renovate, and prepare for use all articles of wearing-apparel, household, domestic, and other linen, and cotton and woollen goods and clothing and fabrics of all kinds, and to buy, sell, hire, manufacture, repair, let on hire, alter, improve, treat, and deal in all apparatus, machines, materials, and articles of all kinds which are capable of being used for any such purposes:

(c.) To make arrangements with persons engaged in any trade, business, or profession, and others for the concession to the Association's members, ticket-holders, and others, of any special rights, privileges, and advantages, and in particular in regard to the supply of goods:

(d.) To join in one association all cleaners and dyers who are interested in the progress and improvement of the cleaning and dyeing industry throughout British Columbia; to promote the consideration and discussion of all questions affecting the cleaning and dyeing industry, both retail and wholesale, and generally to watch over and protect the interests of persons and companies engaged in those industries; to give the Legislature and public bodies facilities for conferring with and ascertaining the views of persons engaged in the said industries; to diffuse amongst the members information on all matters affecting the said industries, and to promote the safety of all persons engaged in the said industries, and to print, publish, issue, and circulate such papers, periodicals, books, circulars, and other literary undertakings as may seem conducive to these objects:

(e.) To improve and elevate the technical and general knowledge of persons engaged in, or about to engage in, the cleaning and dyeing industry, and with a view thereto to provide for the delivery of lectures, and to encourage and promote an apprenticeship system:

(f.) To promote excellence in the carrying out of the work of the said industry and just and honourable practice in the business; to arrange and promote the adoption of uniform working-hours and opening and closing hours among the members of the Association, and to provide for uniform and stabilized rates in the said cleaning and dyeing industry, both wholesale and retail:

(g.) To advance the interests of the Association and of its members by every legitimate means, and to elevate and bring the cleaning and dyeing industry to a higher state of perfection and to render that industry better able to serve the community:

(h.) To procure, furnish, and maintain suitable quarters for the use of its members for meeting-rooms, offices, and other purposes:

(i.) To take such steps as may be deemed advisable to protect the interests of its members and those who may have business transactions with such members:

(j.) To carry on the business of procuring the articles and supplies required by the members of the Association in their business at the most moderate cost, and to buy, sell, and deal in such articles and supplies as wholesalers or retailers or in such other manner as may appear expedient; to carry on the business of general merchants or retail traders in all its branches:

(k.) To raise or borrow money for any purpose of the Association, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Association, present or after acquired:

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Association's objects or any of them; and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Association may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(m.) To redeem and reissue any shares of the Association:

(n.) To advance money to the members of the Association on such terms as may be deemed expedient, but on the security of real and personal property or on negotiable instruments or otherwise:

(o.) To hold, purchase, lease, or otherwise, acquire such lands as are required for the purposes of its business, and to sell, exchange, mortgage, lease, improve, develop, and manage the same:

(p.) To pay out of the funds of the Association all expenses of and incidental to the formation and registration of the Association and conduct of its business:

(q.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(r.) To act as agent, broker, factor, or attorney in fact for its members or any of them or for others engaged in the same or a similar business, and to exercise on behalf of any person such rights, powers, privileges, and authorities as may be conferred upon it:

(s.) To enter into a membership agreement with each of its members with a view to ensure strict observance of the rules of the Association and such other regulations that may be prescribed by the directors of the Association from time to time:

(t.) To assess its members membership fees and to levy contributions for the purpose of defraying current expenses of the Association. 224-mh5

(g.) To carry on the business of proprietors of docks, wharves, jetties, piers, warehouses, and stores, and of ship-owners, ship-builders, shipwrights, dredgers, tug-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, commission agents, merchants, and any other businesses which could be conveniently carried on in connection with the above:

(h.) To undertake the raising and salving of ships, tugs, barges, vessels, freight, and cargoes of every description on such terms as may seem desirable, and generally to carry on a marine salvage business in all its branches:

(i.) To purchase, lease, build, or otherwise acquire and hold and operate any dry-docks and graving-docks and marine railways, with workshops, buildings, plant, machinery, and other equipment and conveniences, and to undertake the repairing, completing, and improving of ships, steamers, tugs, barges, and vessels of all kinds:

(j.) To acquire the rights of any parties in marine insurance policies effected upon wrecked or partially wrecked vessels and the cargoes therein or freight on such cargoes, and to recover from or adjust, settle, compound, or compromise all claims under said policies with insurance companies or parties liable thereunder:

(k.) To purchase, charter, lease, or otherwise acquire, construct, build, make, maintain, alter, repair, hold, and operate any ships, steamers, tugs, barges, or other vessels, marine railways, engines, boilers, compressors, cables, pulleys, pumps, motors, or other plant, mechanical apparatus and appliances, machinery, wharves, docks, piers, buildings, warehouses, workshops, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to the objects of the Company or any of them:

(l.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, hold, use, improve, sell, let, or otherwise dispose of or deal with lands, foreshore lands, buildings, easements, or other interest in lands; to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and hold any real or personal property or any interest therein and any rights and privileges which may be deemed to be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company or any of them:

(m.) To purchase or otherwise acquire ships, steamers, tugs, barges, or other vessels, or any shares or interests therein, complete or incomplete, or out of repair or in a wrecked or disabled condition, and to salve, complete, repair, improve, use, sell, charter, lease, or otherwise deal with or turn the same to account:

(n.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of ship-owners, ship-builders, ship-brokers, insurance-brokers, managers of shipping property, freight contractors, carriers by land and sea, barge-owners, lightermen, warehousemen, ship-chandlers, wharfingers, and general traders:

(o.) To effect all such insurances on any of the property of the Company or in relation to the carrying-on of the Company's business and any risks incidental thereto as may be deemed expedient:

(p.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the objects of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(q.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(r.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions, and if thought advisable to dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, or concessions:

(s.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(t.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any lands or real or personal property purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined by the directors:

(u.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(v.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

And it is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this memorandum shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.
